VENABLE

Cybersecurity Risk Management Services

VENABLE SNAPSHOT

Named "Cyber Security Trailblazers" by the National Law Journal

Ranked as top lawyers in cybersecurity by the Washingtonian

Received Chambers USA "Award for Excellence" for the top U.S. privacy practice

Named two of the "Top 25 Privacy Experts" by Computerworld

"Winning particular plaudits" for "sophisticated enforcement work" —Chambers and Partners

Recognized by Chambers Global and the Legal 500 as a top law firm for its outstanding data protection and privacy practice

CONTACT

Ari M. Schwartz

Managing Director of Cybersecurity
Services, Venable LLP
aschwartz@Venable.com
202.344.4711

THE SUITE OF SERVICES

Venable will utilize legal services, tested organizational governance models, technological tools, insurance, and public relations expertise to aid companies and organizations with their risk management needs. Using the voluntary federal Cybersecurity Framework as a guide we can help organizations set baselines and reduce risk without fear of increasing liability of regulatory enforcement and private and class action litigation that can lead to financial and reputational harm.

AREAS OF FOCUS

- Asset management
- Data governance policies
- Risk assessments
- Board and executive training
- Information protection reviews
- Backup procedure reviews
- Access control
- Incident detection and prevention technologies
- Cloud services
- Insurance
- Penetration testing
- Continuous monitoring
- Information sharing
- Security operations center
- Mitigation
- Recovery planning
- Incident response and recovery exercises

Cybersecurity Risk Management Services Team

Ari M. Schwartz | aschwartz@Venable.com | 202.344.4711 Managing Director of Cybersecurity Services, Venable LLP

A leading voice in national cybersecurity policy with over two decades of government and nonprofit sector experience, Ari Schwartz is Venable's Managing Director of Cybersecurity Services. In his role, Mr. Schwartz directs the establishment of cybersecurity consulting services for Venable, assisting organizations with understanding and development of risk management strategies, including implementation of the Cybersecurity Framework and other planning tools to help minimize risk. Prior to joining Venable, Mr. Schwartz was a member of the White House National Security Council, where he served as Special Assistant to the President and Senior Director for Cybersecurity. As Director, Mr. Schwartz coordinated all network defense cybersecurity policy, including the Cybersecurity Framework. Mr. Schwartz also served in the Department of Commerce, where he advised the Secretary on technology policy matters. Additionally, Mr. Schwartz has worked at the Center for Democracy and Technology and the Center for Effective Government.

John F. Banghart | jfbanghart@Venable.com | 202.344.4803 Senior Director for Technology Risk Management, Venable LLP

Mr. Banghart is Venable's Senior Director for Technology Risk Management, with over two decades of federal government and private-sector experience in cybersecurity. Mr. Banghart has successfully led efforts to address significant and high-profile cybersecurity issues within major government programs and institutions while facing complex legal, technical, and political circumstances. Prior to joining Venable, Mr. Banghart was the Senior Director for Trusted Engineering for Microsoft. From 2013 to 2015, Mr. Banghart served on the White House National Security Council ("NSC") as the Director for Federal Cybersecurity, leading NSC's efforts to address significant cybersecurity incidents. Mr. Banghart also spent several years as a cybersecurity researcher at the National Institute of Standards and Technology and in the Office of the Undersecretary of Commerce for Standards and Technology. Additionally, Mr. Banghart has worked at the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services, Booz Allen Hamilton, and the Center for Internet Security.

Stuart P. Ingis | singis@Venable.com | 202.344.4613 Partner, Venable LLP

Mr. Ingis co-leads Venable's eCommerce, Privacy, and Data Security Practice Group. Mr. Ingis is a nationally recognized leading attorney and thought leader on privacy, marketing, advertising, eCommerce, and Internet law. Mr. Ingis regularly represents companies in the media, communications, Internet, information services, advertising, retail, and financial services industries before the U.S. Congress and the Federal Trade Commission ("FTC") as well as before other federal and state entities. Mr. Ingis is well-known for representing clients in crisis management situations. Mr. Ingis has represented a number of CEOs in testimony before Congressional Committees. Mr. Ingis also serves as general and policy counsel to the Direct Marketing Association, policy counsel to the Interactive Advertising Bureau, and general and policy counsel to the Digital Advertising Alliance.

Emilio W. Cividanes | ecividanes@Venable.com | 202.344.4414

Partner, Venable LLP

Mr. Cividanes co-leads Venable's eCommerce, Privacy, and Data Security Practice Group. With nearly three decades of experience in counseling clients in connection with privacy and data protection, he has worked extensively with Congress and federal agencies, as well as assisted companies in handling hundreds of data security incidents, ranging from health data to credit cards to Social Security Numbers. Mr. Cividanes has successfully represented companies in connection with privacy-related litigation, and congressional and regulatory investigations. Among other cases, he represented GeoCities in the FTC's first Internet privacy case and Reed Elsevier Inc. in connection with the FTC's 3-year investigation of the company's data security practices. He has served as counsel to the U.S. Senate Judiciary Committee's Subcommittee on Technology and the Law and taught information privacy law as an adjunct professor at Georgetown University Law Center.