

AIPLA DIVERSITY COMMITTEE EVENT

The Diversity in IP Law Committee and Women in IP Law Committee of AIPLA bring together intellectual property professionals from industry, government and private practice firms for a networking reception in an effort to increase awareness of careers in the IP field, and to encourage women and minority engineering, science, and law students to seek careers in these fields.

The reception will include brief presentations by professionals with diverse backgrounds, who will share their experiences and provide information on their respective paths toward their intellectual property law career.
